MYTH
You don’t need to evacuate from your house until an emergency warning is called.

MYTH
Brick houses don’t burn.
MYTH

Firefighters and the police will knock at your door to tell you:

‘A fire has started and it’s time to leave.’

MYTH

The best way to put out a campfire is to cover it with dirt or sand.
MYTH
We’ll be fine. The bush is a few streets away. Bushfires can’t cross the road.

MYTH
If we are away from the flames, we will be safe.
MYTH
You can outrun a bushfire or drive really fast through it.

MYTH
When a bushfire comes, you get out of the house quickly, get down low under the smoke and crawl to the letterbox.
MYTH

Discarded bottles and broken glass can start bushfires.
